Abstract

- Many paper coupons go unused because people forget them or don't have time to search through coupon books.
- SnapiGo scans coupons with OCR and instantly saves the important details.
- The app sends location-based reminders so coupons get used on time.
- A crowdsourcing feature lets users share and discover deals.

Introduction

- Coupon books from schools, fundraisers, and local shops have great deals, but most people forget they exist.
- As a result, many valuable coupons expire unused.
- SnapiGo turns this everyday issue into a smart digital solution.
- Users can scan paper coupons with OCR, and the app saves all important details automatically.
- SnapiGo sends location-based notifications when a user is near a store where a saved coupon applies.
- A public, crowdsourced feed lets users share and discover new deals in their community.
- Overall, the app transforms old coupon books into a modern, convenient, and easy-to-use digital system.

Technical Details

- React Native + Expo SDK with a custom Expo Dev Client for running native modules.
- On-device Apple Vision OCR to read coupon text directly on iOS devices.
- Expo Camera captures coupon photos, and all OCR processing runs locally for speed and privacy.
- Supabase provides authentication and stores coupon data, store info, and metadata.
- Expo Location + Expo Task Manager power background geofencing so the app knows when a user enters a saved store's radius.
- Expo Notifications sends personalized "nearby deal" alerts, with in-app throttling logic to avoid spam.

Future Work

- Publish the app on the iOS App Store and Google Play Store.
- Build a recommendation system to surface nearby or trending deals.
